

SUZUKI HP-11 Miniature Upright Console Piano

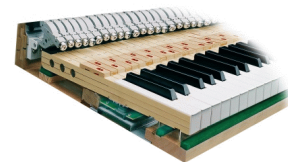

- Elegant traditional styling and high gloss cabinets create a command performance in any home environment.
- 3 finishes available.
- Multiple weighted mechanism
- 64 note polyphony.

THE HP-11 is a traditional home piano that offers all the basic play features of our more expensive models, but in a more stunning, compact and affordable package. The HP-11 has a fallboard, sculptured music rack and ported speaker enclosures, 3 built in expression pedals and the most advanced electronics in its class. A high quality hammer action keyboard gives you authentic touch and feel.

Upgraded sound memory produces exceptional piano voices and full dynamic tone response. New features include a huge, 4MB stereo Grand Piano sample from the Bosendorfer Grand Piano, 13 beautifully sampled instrument voices (from the European masters at Groovestyle). EQ brilliance control, 64 note polyphony, 13 demo songs, 2 track recorder and metronome

Our new wooden keyed features mechanical hammers, weight placement and pivot points that exactly match the feel, motion and strike of an acoustic grand piano.
